Photoshop Time with Yomi

Make gposing great again

Hey Everyone! It's been a hot minute and its your favorite photoshop wiz, YOMIGAMI OKAMI! I think im hot shit and can teach you more than that faust dude. Sit back and relax while i go over how to PHOTOSHOP your pics for social media! Ever see comments or questions like "How do I make my photos look like yours?? What do you do to them?" Well Im about to show you.

Step 1: Literally just dont know what the
eff youre doing Its ok,
generally most or all people will start here.

Step 2: Pick a god given gshade preset and basic location (In this one I chose the one i made myself and totally did not steal called “Nezuko_BLUE_EVERYTHING.ini”)

It doesnt matter how this preset or any of its filters affect your photo. Just turn on all the pretty effects and hope it makes up for your lack of skill later.

Step 3: Take a very disproportionate photo of yourself

Yup! Looks off-center to me!

Step 4: The actual photoshopping

Oh my god here it is My best advice for people is to make sure your photo is drowned in as many effects and adjustments as possible. You want tons of bloom, light, and contrast on this baby, because thats what makes it POP.

TURN UP THE LEVELS: YOU WANT IT TO SHINE AND THE LIGHTS TO STAND OUT

TURN UP THE SATURATION: Remember, more color means more vibrance and life!

Add another pre-made filter to cover up the fact the previous 2 steps showed you had no idea what you were doing:

Finale: I think we're done folks.

Conclusion: thanks for attending my TED talk and I hope you all continue to support me in the future! Happy editing! Dont forget to show it off on social media!
